DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 1/24/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the use of glycerin throughout the tampon and/or the malodor counteractant not being limited to placement on the outer regions of the tampon) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Applicant further argues Petris does not disclose the fragrance in liquid form. However, the cited passage of Petris discusses impregnating the tampon with various fluids.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1, 3, 5-7, 10-15, and 20-24, 26-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Petrus et al. USPN 5417224.

As to claims 1, 3, 5-7, 10-13, 15, 20-24, and 26-30, Petrus discloses a tampon having glycerin and pectin as a malodor counteractant material (col. 6, lines 37-52). Petrus discloses the glycerin as a lubricant, however it is additionally capable of absorbing odors as taught in Yabrov (col. 4, lines 41-43). Additionally it is old and well known that glycerin is a natural substance. Petrus is silent about the counteractant material present in the absorbent. However, Petrus discloses a malodor counteractant in a tampon (col. 6, line s37-52). Therefore, the general conditions of the claims are disclosed. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the claimed amount of counteractant material since "where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art." In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

As to claim 14, Petrus discloses the fragrance is in liquid form (col. 7, lines 60-67).

Conclusion

2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
